

NOBLE WARRIORS

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY TO THE MEN OF TODAY AND TOMORROW

How Noble Warriors Adds Value to Your Men's Fraternity Experience

We believe that Men's Fraternity is the best product currently on the market to meet men where they are and help them learn practical, Biblically-based strategies for walking with Christ and leading their families. With that in mind, Noble Warriors uses the Men's Fraternity curriculum as a foundational component for our ministry plan. It is our goal to partner with many churches, ministry leaders and individuals to launch Men's Fraternity groups each September. We desire to see groups meeting each day of the week in churches, community centers, homes and businesses.

In order to help motivated men launch and lead groups successfully, Noble Warriors and/or its representatives plan to do the following:

- Develop and publish a schedule for groups to start during the second week of September and complete their study just before Easter.
- Organize and promote a summer leadership training program that simply encourages leaders to complete a thorough review of the curriculum for that year prior to the September launch. The guided review schedule will be supplemented by group meetings that are live and or via conference calls.
- Serve as a local resource for 'best practices' and answers to questions about how to succeed with your Men's Fraternity group.
- Provide ongoing encouragement for leaders by sending out leader's notes for each session during the preceding week. This allows leaders to review notes and make preparations for the upcoming week.
- Reinforce the concepts covered in each session of Men's' Fraternity by
 - Sending out a weekly wrap-up e-mail to all Men's Fraternity participants that reminds men of one or two key points from the session
 - Using our daily radio broadcast, Noble Notes Challenge, to reinforce concepts
 - Frequently writing the Noble Notes weekly devotionals to complement the Men's Fraternity sessions
- Planning and executing other events during which men from various groups can meet each other and celebrate their experiences and accomplishments
- Recommending other resources and/or opportunities that would reinforce or compliment the Men's Fraternity experience

We, along with many others, have seen the impact of this material on men, marriages and families.
